CHAIR'S WELCOME LETTER

By Anne Dixon

This is an exciting year for us. Seventy-five years ago, on 15th August 1945, the very first CPW event was held at Waddon College, Oxford. Much has changed in the Church and the World since then, but CPW has continued to offer Catholic people, and their friends and families, enriching, empowering and enjoyable residential events in a creative community of faith.

Since 2020 marks CPW's 75th Anniversary, we're planning a celebration (more on pages 10-11). The celebration is on 15th August 2020 and we'd love to see you there. Whether you come to CPW every year, used to come in the past, or if you've never been but would like to - this celebration is for you, so please put the date in your diary!

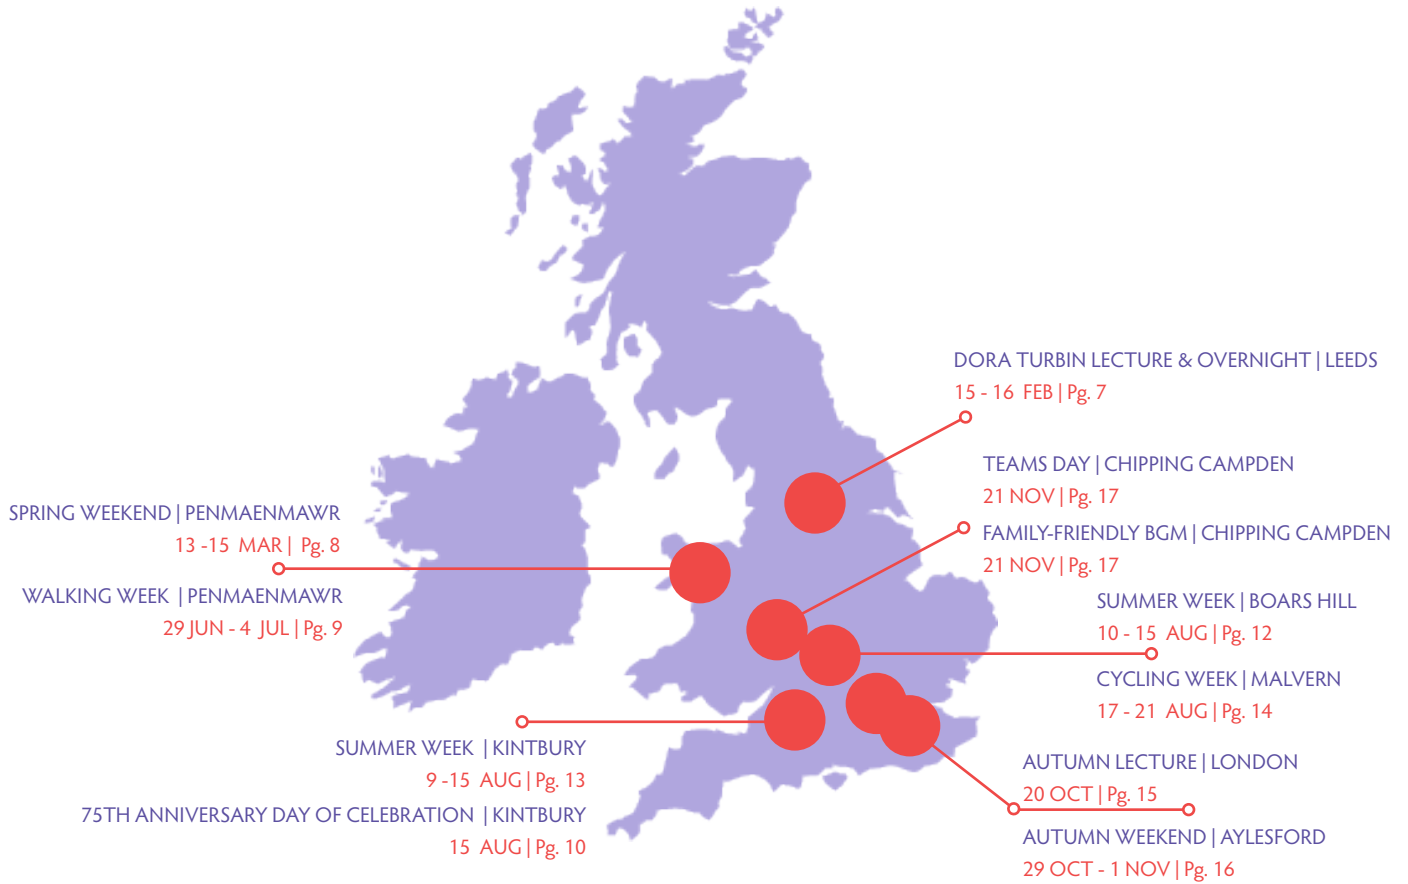

Our 75th Anniversary celebrations will last throughout the year, so whichever of our ten 2020 events you chose to attend, you'll be part of the celebrations.

CPW's 2020 events will also explore different aspects of Prophecy in our individual and shared faith story*. From our Dora Turbin Lecture with David McLoughlin in February, to our 'BGM with a difference' in Leeds in November, we have a great programme with events to suit all our members. Thinkers, walkers, cyclists, singers, dancers, readers, helpers and hoppers - whatever your gift, come and join us. You'll be more than welcome.

\ 2020 is the second year in our three year programme of study on Priesthood, Prophecy and Kingdom - each event is distinct and attendance at previous events is not a pre-requisite.*

*"For 75 years
CPW has offered
enriching,
empowering
and enjoyable
residential events
in a creative
community of faith"*

2020 EVENTS AT A GLANCE:

WHAT HAPPENS AT A CPW EVENT?

Every CPW has its own theme, chosen by the chair, which is explored during the week through talks, discussions, and various activities.

The CPW team, led by the chair and assisted by excellent speakers, present ideas around the theme to the adults in morning and early evening sessions. We aim to use varied approaches, to suit all learning styles. There are opportunities to respond to the presentations, individually and in group work, which are enjoyable, inclusive and stimulating. Serious discussion interspersed with laughter is a common feature of these sessions.

Meanwhile, on our all-age weeks a team of trained helpers lead separate sessions for the children and young people. These sessions are fun-filled, enjoyable, safe, healthy and varied; often encompassing art, drama or film-making, as well as swimming, playing games and sport. Whatever the members of your family enjoy doing we will do our best to accommodate them.

The afternoons are free to spend time with friends and family relaxing, having some quiet time, or exploring the local area.

The evening sessions include time for discussion and reflection on the themes of the day. The later evenings provide opportunities for relaxed conversation and socialising. There is usually a small informal 'bar' as well as optional evening activities such as games, singalongs and quizzes. These activities are run on a volunteer basis.

Liturgy is an integral part of every CPW day and is encouraged to arise naturally as a response to the event's theme. Everyone is welcome to contribute to our prayers, the celebration of Mass and other forms of worship. Our liturgies are creative and inclusive. Our chaplains are part of the event team from the outset and are skilled in facilitating participation.

Place and time are important factors to your enjoyment. For busy participants our one-day events are located near good public transport access and/or have parking facilities. For those with more time to relax and reflect, our 18+ residential centres have a calmer atmosphere and are located in quieter more rural locations

For those with children and young people to care for, our all-age events take place in school holidays in centres with space and facilities for fun activities.

We aim to provide events which are accessible and enjoyable for all abilities.

Winter Weekend: Prophetic Imagination

Includes the Dora Turbin Lecture

15 - 16 Feb 2020 | Fully Catered | Childcare Available During Lecture

Hinsley Hall, Leeds

In the year of CPW's 75th Anniversary we will use stories of inspirational people who have been part of CPW's history to find ways to respond to challenges today.

The speaker for the Dora Turbin Lecture on Saturday 15th will be David McLoughlin, Emeritus Fellow of Christian Theology at Newman University, Birmingham. In his research he explores the relationship between theology and everyday life. On the challenge of prophetic imagination in 2020, David says "in every age we need men and women who open up for us the prophetic imagination of a Moses at the burning bush, or Hosea and Amos in a time of national crisis and of Jesus in his time".

The chaplain is Columban Father Jim Fleming who worked in Pakistan for 20 years and now raises awareness about missionary outreach and supports asylum seekers in Birmingham. Ellen Teague is part of the Columban Justice, Peace and Integrity of Creation Team, and works as a Catholic journalist on justice, peace and ecology issues. She has been involved with Catholic Peoples Weeks since the late 1980s.

The weekend will run from lunch on Saturday to after lunch on Sunday. A day guest rate is available for those who would like to attend on Saturday only (lunch included). Children are welcome as day guests and childcare will be available during the Dora Turbin Lecture.

Spring Weekend: Prophets – Messengers Opening Unseeing Eyes & Unhearing Ears

Exploring Prophecy - Yesterday, Today & Tomorrow

13 - 15 Mar 2020 | Fully Catered | 18+

Noddfa Spirituality Centre, Penmaenmawr, Wales

“Everyone has a prophetic task, the potential to burn with the same fire [of Pentecost] and light up every corner of the earth.” (Judith Lang, They Looked at God, New City, London, 2005).

What does it mean to have a prophetic task, and who were, and are, our prophets?

Ezekiel...Christ...Romero...who now? What effect might it have if we really listen to the prophets' messages of the past? If we in turn are to be prophets to others, what is our message and do we have to suffer as all the prophets suffered?

We hope this weekend will give us the opportunity to open our unseeing eyes and unhearing ears to our own prophetic tasks. In this weekend together we will explore these questions to set us thinking and praying throughout CPW's year on prophecy. Bring your own ideas to help our exploration.

29 June - 4 July 2020 | Fully Catered | 11+

Noddfa Spirituality Centre, Penmaenmawr, Wales

What does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God (Micah 6:8). During this week we will be considering the implications of Micah's prophetic call, looking at Biblical and some modern prophets who walked or marched as witness to their calling.

We will be walking each day and exploring some of the countryside around Penmaenmawr and nearby Snowdonia National Park. The week will be fully catered, with a picnic lunch each day. You should come prepared to walk up to 10 miles each day.

Children and young people over the age of 11 are welcome, but they will be the responsibility of their parents or carers as there is no parallel children's programme.

Celebrate 75 Years of CPW!

Saturday 15th August 2020

St Cassian's Centre, Kintbury

£10 ADULTS | £5 CHILDREN | REGISTER AT:

www.catholicpeoplesweeks.org

Camping & accommodation available.

CPW has so much to be thankful for that we want to celebrate all we are and all we might be thanks to God's generosity.

Nowhere is this more clearly exhibited than in the wonders of Creation which will be displayed for us in the natural surroundings of the house and grounds of the St Cassian's Centre at Kintbury.

As part of our celebrations we will remember our responsibilities to the Earth (referred to as 'our common home' by Pope Francis) and to the generations for whom we hold it in trust. Are we respectful and appreciative of our beautiful home? Could we do more to protect it? What are the challenges that lie ahead?

The day will provide food for thought as well as 'soul food' for people of all ages and abilities. Our keynote speaker will encourage us to see the world in a new light - God's light - which we hope will shine through all our praying, singing, dancing, talking and just being together.

If you're ever been to a CPW (even once!), or you come every year, or you've thought you might come but haven't got round to it, or you've just heard about us and you'd like to know more - this day is for you. Come and join us and help us celebrate 75 years of faith seeking understanding.

Summer Week: A People's Theology for the 21st Century

10 - 15 Aug 2020 | Fully Catered | 18+

Boars Hill Carmelite Priory, Oxford

With the help of our Keynote speaker, Diarmuid O'Murchu, we will be considering the human story, our place in the whole of Creation and the Christ event within it.

Diarmuid is a Catholic Priest, as well as a well-known author and retreat leader. His most recent books include Beyond Original Sin, Incarnation: A New Evolutionary Threshold, Inclusivity: A Gospel Mandate and Christianity's Dangerous Memory: A Rediscovery of the Revolutionary Jesus.

Diarmuid's concerns regarding climate change have been an important influence on his writing, as have the work of Teilhard de Chardin and contemporary theologians.

We hope that, in dialogue with Diarmuid, as well as from our own reflections and liturgies, the implications for the implementation of an adult faith in connection to today's most pressing issues, will emerge.

Summer All-Age Week: 'Wake up! Revive what remains, for it is fading fast' Rev 3:2

Prophetic Voices in the Call to Reform

9-15 Aug 2020 | Catered* | All Age (Parallel Children's Programme)

St Cassian's Centre, Kintbury

The Church, says Pope Francis, "needs prophets.... it needs all of us to be prophets, not critics who don't approve of anything, but one who opens wide the doors of hope".

Prophetic voices challenge us to 'wake up', to trust and keep faith, to be courageous in the proclamation of God's word. But the many complex issues of our time – social, economic, cultural, political and personal - offer no easy answers or quick solutions.

How is it possible for the Church to be the rock of Truth, and respond with an open and generous heart to the many challenges of the modern world? Whose are the prophetic voices who will truly wake us up and help the Church 'revive what remains'?

During this all-age week we will listen to a range of prophetic voices: of women and men in politics, media and education; of young people; and of parishioners.

Through thought-provoking presentations, supportive discussions, quiet reflection, and creative and inclusive liturgies, we can all play our part as prophets of hope; listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit speaking to the Church today.

Summer Cycling Week: A Fair Field Full of Folk

17 - 21 Aug 2020 | Catered | 11+

Start: Malvern Station | Finish: Oxford Station | Various Overnight Venues

*'A fair field full of folk I found there between
Of all manner of people, the poor and the rich,
Working and wandering, as the world demanded.'*

William Langland, The Vision of Piers Ploughman

Following two recent very successful cycling pilgrimages, we are offering a short cycling week through the Cotswolds. We shall take as our starting point the Malvern Hills and Piers Ploughman's vision of the modern world as he gazed across the plain.

As we travel together and encounter others on the way, we will consider the way the world works, how we live with our fellow humans, and our place within the landscape God has created for us.

Mutual support, good companionship and lots of fresh air alongside daily prayer and visits to places of interest on our route will leave us invigorated and inspired.

Our cycling will be leisurely, but you will be expected to be a competent on-road cyclist with the ability to cope with some off-road moments. There will be a support vehicle to carry small overnight bags. Young cyclists are very welcome with a 1:1 adult ratio. For more information visit the website.

Autumn All-Age Week: Seek First To Understand

Deepening Dialogue, Discovering Difference

29 Oct -1 Nov 2020 | Fully Catered | All-Age (Parallel Children's Programme)

Aylesford Priory, Kent

In today's world, followers of one who welcomed the outsider, often pride themselves on how unprejudiced and welcoming they are. We aim to build bridges not walls. We celebrate diversity. We recognise that we are all the same underneath and find common ground and ways to work together. But how often do we truly try to understand others?

To find out what someone else really believes, and why, requires true dialogue and deep listening.

We will spend four days at the beautiful Aylesford Priory in Kent, challenging ourselves to listen properly and understand the differences between ourselves, other faiths and other Christian traditions. And, perhaps the hardest of all, between ourselves and Catholics with different opinions.

In doing so we might also come to understand better what lies behind our own opinions and find out which of our beliefs are fundamental and which are based on our personalities, backgrounds and experiences.

Biennial General Meeting: A Gathering of Priests & Prophets

Family-Friendly BGM With a Difference!

21 Nov 2020, 2pm-5pm | Free Event | Childcare Available

School Hall, Chipping Campden School, Cidermill Ln, Chipping Campden

As our year of celebration for the first 75 years of CPW comes to a close, we will take time to consider our discoveries together in the two preceding years of study: in 2019 we examined our understanding of Priesthood in its many forms - in community, celebration, ceremony, prayer, parenting, symbol and play. In 2020 we will be responding to prophetic voices and listening for our own call.

What have we learned? How is the world different today? What part did we play? What does it all mean? What happens next?

In a change to our usual format, the Biennial General Meeting will form part of a half day non-residential conference to which all are invited. We hope as many members as possible will attend.

Childcare will be available during the BGM (helpers will take children swimming at the municipal pool next door to the school), so please join us! Tea, coffee, fruit and biscuits will be provided.

Book Online: Visit www.catholicpeoplesweeks.org/events to book your place online.

Chair - Anne Dixon

Organiser - Malcolm Dixon

Venue - Chipping Campden School is a located in Chipping Campden in Gloucestershire. It's well placed geographically and a great place for either a day trip or an overnight.
